

the University of Nevada, Reno, in hopes to pursue a career in International Business.

My long-term goal is to work in global markets. I haven't figures out the specifics yet, but I want to do something that involves collaborating with people and companies across the world. I'm especially interested in jobs that would allow me to travel outside of the United States for work.

Technical Background

I would say I'm comfortable with technology and am pretty good at learning/ adapting to new systems.

I use technology in both school and in my leadership position Some examples are:

- Canvas & Adobe Photoshop → I use these in my PR and Marketing role in my sorority to design graphics and create content.
- Google Docs/Google Suite → I've used these since high school for writing papers, doing group projects, and collaborating with classmates.
  - Notion  $\rightarrow$  I use it to stay organized with assignments, schedules, to-do lists.

Where I'm from: I grew up in Las Vegas, Nevada; I lived there my whole life, and fun fact-I have lived in the same house all 20 years of my life

Why UNR: UNR actually wasn't my first choice, I was planning on attending SDSU, but tuition wasn't practical, and living in Reno was far cheaper. I absolutely love Reno now, and I am so glad I came here Hobbies: I have a deep love for traveling, baking, cooking, working out, going to festivals, etc.

Fun Fact: I studied in abroad Valencia, Spain last semester, from January-June 2025. It was the best time of my life, where not only did I get to learn about all these different types of cultures, but I was truly able to learn about myself; pushing my limits, and seeing where my potential lies.

Favorite music/Bands: I love indie & 60's/70's music. My favorite bands are The Beatles and Palace.

Mu current favorite songs are: "Live Well" -Palace & "Something" -The Beatle

Dreams & Aspirations: I want a career in international business that lets me live abroad, work with different cultures, and make an impact while still growing through travel and creativity.
